C. & P. SMOTHERED.

By C. W. SWAN, There is a bus shake-up coming in two amateur leagues, and they will have an important bearing on the results in both circuits. Two teams will be replaced by two faster aggregations, and then the post-season series will look more like a real race than a joke.

The writer knows positively that a new team will be admitted in a new league, and that another nine is thinking seriously of entering that same circuit. A few days will bring the entire story to Parkview, that is, the team that has been playing under the name of Park-view, will not be seen in the Suburban League again this season. A new team, which will use the old name, should it which will use the old name, should it make up its mind to enter the circuit, may receive the franchise of the Park-view aggregation at once, but that has not been decided upon. The new team will be under the managership of Joe

Should this new outfit fall to pass mus ter, a series between Silver Spring and Petworth will most likely be played, as these teams are the best in the circuit. these teams are the best in the circuit Parkview played great ball at the be ginning of the season, but that old-time came, and it put an end to the Manager Love, of the Ninth the Sunday School League, stated to the writer last night; "Ninth will not play in the Sunday School League as long as Shorty' Hughes handles the indicator." The Ingram team will not play, and North Carolina and Anacostia are doubtful. Without Ninth and Ingram the league would be a joke, as Hamiline would have a walkaway, and that is just what the fans of the league do not want to see. As it would stand with a new umpire, four teams, namely, Ninth, Ingram, Sherwood, and Hamiline, would all have a chance at the flag. The only way that Ninth will stay in the league is for the league to get rid of "Shorty" Hughes.

Eimer Smith, the crack twirler of the Ingram team of the Sunday School League, sure did save the game for Commerce and Labor yesterday in the Departmental League, After the Mallmen had pounded big Whitney for thirteen had pounded by Whitney for th Manager Love, of the Ninth team of the Sunday School League, stated to the writer last hight: "Ninth will not play in the Sunday School League as

Had Smith started the game the Mau-men would have been lucky to get a score, as the Kid Ingram youngster was in that old-time form that made him the nder of the year in the amateur ranks.

Commerce and Labor defeated Post was poorly played, but intensely inter esting. Buck Becker, Post-office's supposed rescue man, was not equal to the occasion, and was touched up for twelve safeties. Miserable support in the early season was largely responsible for his rather mediocre exhibition of twirling. Whitney, the former Eastern High star, pitched the first six innings, but was relieved by Elmer Smith, of the Ingram, Sunday School League team, when the Mail Carriers started to pound his offerings.
